Energy Statistics in India

With ambitious targets and comprehensive plans, India stands at the forefront of global efforts to mitigate climate change through sustainable energy initiatives. Central to this endeavour is India's pledge to achieve net zero emissions by 2070, a pivotal aspect driving sustainable energy goals and enhancing energy efficiency. Energy use per capita has increased over the decade with total primary energy supply per capita to 25745⁴ Mega Joules in 2022-23.

Sector Wise Consumption of Electricity during last 5 years

Electricity available for supply has increased from 9,74,436 GWh in 2013-14 to 15,29,471 GWh in 2022-23(P), thus recording a CAGR of 5.14% during this period. There is also a healthy increase of 8.17% in the availability of electricity (from 14,13,903 GWh during 2021-22 to 15,29,471 GWh) during 2022-23(P)

Trends of Net availability in India

Like in all developing countries, India has also experienced a steady growth rate of Petroleum Products over time. A production of 203.20 MTs in 2011-12 to 262.94 MTs in 2019-20 i.e. an increase of over 29% has been registered. But during 2020-21, primarily because of COVID-19, the same has been decreased to 233.51 MTs, a decline of 11.19% over 2019-20. The total availability of Petroleum Products, however, has experience a healthy growth of close to 8.45% during FY:2022-23(P) and has reached to 250.04. The CAGR of total availability of Petroleum products between 2013-14 to 2022-23(P) has shown a growth of 4.41%,

Among all the Petroleum Products the HSDO, which has the highest share of consumption (38.52%) during FY: 2022-23(P), experienced a growth of 12.05% over last year. The Petrol and Pet-Coke are also having a growth of 13.38% and 28.68% respectively over last year. The HSD has also registered a growth during FY:2022-23(P); with a growth of 12.05% over last year it has stood at a figure of 85.90 MTs in 2022-23(P), as compared to 76.66 MTs during 2021-22.

Sustainability

The United Nations (UN) General Assembly, in its 70th Session held on 25th September 2015, adopted the document titled “Transforming our World: The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development” consisting of 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and associated 169 targets. The SDGs are a comprehensive list of global goals integrating social, economic and environmental dimensions of development. Realizing that Energy is critical for people deprived of the opportunity of access to sustainable energy, Goal 7 with the aim to ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable and modern energy to all was adopted as one of the 17 SDGs. The goal also stresses more focused attention to improve access to clean and safe cooking fuels and technologies, improve energy efficiency, increase use of renewable sources and promotion of sustainable and modern energy for all. Energy from renewable resources – wind, water, solar, biomass and geothermal energy – is inexhaustible and clean. The targets adopted as a part of the Goal 7 of SDGs 2030 Agenda are as follows:

- I. By 2030, ensure universal access to affordable, reliable and modern energy services.
- II. By 2030, increase substantially the share of renewable energy in the global energy mix.
- III. By 2030, double the global rate of improvement in energy efficiency.
- IV. By 2030, enhance international co-operation to facilitate access to clean energy research and technology, including renewable energy, energy efficiency and advanced and cleaner fossil-fuel technology, and promote investment in energy infrastructure and clean energy technology.
- V. By 2030, expand infrastructure and upgrade technology for supplying modern and sustainable energy services for all in developing countries, in particular least developed countries, small island developing states and land-locked developing countries, in accordance with their respective programmes of support.

Energy Market in India

In 2023, amid geopolitical turmoil around the globe and shrinking supply chains, India's economy has shown significant resilience. The GDP grew more than expected, registering a year-over-year growth of about 7.15%⁵. The unexpected high growth was led by rapid growth in the manufacturing sector and the construction sector, while the growth in the service sector remained moderate. In 2024, despite global challenges and expected global slowdown, India's GDP is expected to grow rapidly in the range of 6.0% to 6.5%, retaining its position as the world's fastest-growing economy among the Group of Twenty (G20) nations for the third consecutive year. Following a successful hosting of the G20 Summit in 2023, India positioned itself as an attractive destination for energy transition-related investments. In 2023, India added about 17 GW of capacity, of which 13.8 GW was non-fossil additions. On the other hand, India expanded its financial assistance to promote green hydrogen/green ammonia ecosystem and laid the groundwork for its domestic carbon markets. In 2024, India is expected to continue to push harder on its implementation strategy on energy transition while balancing its issues related to energy security and energy affordability. The strategy will focus on a few aspects like building local supply chains, expanding green hydrogen/ammonia production, securing domestic fuel resources, deepening power sector reforms to address structural issues, and continuing to adopt new and clean technologies by creating demand and infrastructure.

The following are the key trends (in 2024) for the India power and renewables market:

Clean energy transition is advancing; however, reliance on coal will remain high: Electricity demand is expected to grow in tandem with GDP growth, primarily spurred by increase in local activity due to general elections and impact of El-nino during first half of the year. With a 60% yoy growth in total capacity addition, share of coal in generation is expected to decrease marginally from 74.3% in 2023 to 73.2% in 2024 primarily driven by aggressive capacity addition on non-fossil fuel.

Improving domestic fuel supply (Coal and Gas) will remain a top priority to respond to rapidly growing demand. In 2024, India is expected surpass 1 billion metric tons of domestic coal production further impacting imported coal consumption. While domestic gas production to get a boost primarily driven by the new gas reforms on pricing.

On green hydrogen/ammonia, the focus would shift to local demand creation and support the excess costs. With launch of two new schemes under SIGHT (Component 2, Mode 2A and 2B), Government expects to aggregate demand from public sector units and large consumers like refineries and fertilizer plants. However, uptake of green hydrogen will warrant additional structure through which either green hydrogen off-taker (Refineries in this case) can monetize the green component of hydrogen or government can provide budgetary support to off-takers which will subsidize their green hydrogen procurement.

Power market sentiments to remain positive with softening of power market prices and continued big-ticket market reforms across different segments of the market. With DISCOMs, the ongoing reforms expected to improve the short-term financial discipline and reduce AT&C losses. While on wholesale markets, government to focus on improving market liquidity by bringing market coupling (price and volume) with first phase of MBED. For supporting large scale renewable capacity additions, reforms to focus on improving compliance and improving ease of doing business environment for C&I consumers to meet their voluntary sustainability targets. Renewables to stay at the centre of India's climate policy as 2024 is expected to see the highest renewable capacity addition (>20 GW). Falling module costs globally and tender backlog to play a vital role in record capacity addition outlook for 2024. Hybrid renewable tenders have gained prominence and are expected to continue to rise. Stand-alone storage tenders (technology agnostic) are also expected to be requested increasingly as the need for balancing variable generation, and grid management rises with higher penetration of renewables. As India firmly establishes its climate credentials, 2024 is expected to be the year that will define the "nuts and bolts" of domestic carbon strategy. In 2023, India passed the 2023 Carbon Credit Trading Scheme (CCTS), or the "principal" scheme with both segments (compliance and voluntary). However, with no expected timeline for launch of voluntary segment, it is unlikely that the voluntary segment will be operational until the commencement of the first cycle of the compliance segment in 2025-26. The voluntary segment is essential for pushing through sunrise sectors such as green hydrogen, where India has put forward a bold stance. In 2024, crucial decisions related to international participation are expected to be made, which will define the tone for India's approach to the carbon credit market. Additionally, _____ details on scope, design and procedure are expected to be thrashed out, along with linkages across international standards and registries.

Energy Status in India

India is the third largest consumer of energy in the world. According to the Ministry of Power, the country's peak demand reached a record high of 223 gigawatts (GW) in June 2023, a rise of 3.4% from the highest level in 2022, and consumption is projected to continue rising. Supported by industrial growth, urbanization, government policies, and favourable geopolitics over the past decade, India has achieved an installed capacity exceeding 400 GW. The Indian power sector employs a wide range of fuel sources, including traditional sources such as coal, oil, and gas, alongside environmentally sustainable sources such as solar, wind, biomass, industrial waste, and both large and small hydro plants. With a population of approximately 1.4 billion and the world's fastest major growing economy, India's energy demand is growing rapidly. Fossil fuels dominate India's power sector, but the country has ambitious goals to significantly increase the share of renewable and nuclear energy. As reported by the Government of India's Press Information Bureau, the share of non-fossil fuel in total electricity production during the year 2022-23 and current year (up to May 2023) was 25.44 percent and 22.45 percent, respectively. Significant efforts are being made to reduce the growth of greenhouse gas emissions and dependence on energy imports, while at the same time enhancing India's energy security. The transition from coal to renewables will take decades, and in the interim India requires the flexibility of fossil-fuel based energy to balance the grid during intermittent operation of renewables. India will continue to rely on natural gas and cleaner forms of fossil energy during this transition.

Renewable Energy Status in India

As of Apr 2024, Renewable energy sources, including large hydropower, have a combined installed capacity of 191.67 GW⁶. The following is the installed capacity for Renewables: Wind power: 46.16 GW. Solar Power: 82.63 GW.

The Government has decided to invite bids for 50 GW of renewable energy capacity annually for the next five years i.e., from Financial Year 2023-24⁷ till Financial Year 2027-28. These annual bids of ISTS (Inter-State Transmission) connected renewable energy capacity will also include setting up of wind power capacity of at least 10 GW per annum. The plan finalized by Ministry of New & Renewable Energy (MNRE) at a meeting chaired by Union Minister for Power & NRE Shri R. K. Singh last week, is in accordance with Prime Minister's announcement at COP26, of achieving 500 GW of installed electricity capacity from non-fossil fuel (Renewable Energy + Nuclear) sources by 2030.

India currently has a total renewable energy capacity of 168.96 GW (as on 28th February 2023) with about 82 GW at various stages of implementation and about 41 GW under tendering stage. This includes 64.38 GW Solar Power, 51.79 GW Hydro Power, 42.02 GW Wind Power and 10.77 GW Bio Power. Renewable Energy (RE) projects take around 18-24 months for commissioning, the bid plan will add 250 GW of renewable energy and ensure 500 GW of installed capacity by 2030. The Ministry of Power is already working on upgrading and adding the transmission system capacity for evacuating 500 GW of electricity from non-fossil fuel. In addition to this, the Ministry has declared a quarterly plan of the bids for FY 2023-24, which comprises of bids for at least 15 GW of renewable energy capacity in each of the first and second quarters of the financial year (April-June 2023 and July-September 2023 respectively), and at least 10 GW in each of the third and fourth quarters of the financial year (Oct-December 2023 and January-March 2024 respectively).

By the end of Q1 2024, India's large-scale solar project pipeline stood at 143.3 GW, with an additional 93.1 GW of projects tendered and pending auction. The average cost of large-scale solar projects fell by 7 per cent QoQ and 28 per cent YoY, significantly improving the projects' internal rate of return. India achieved a milestone by adding over 10 GW⁸ of solar capacity in the first quarter (Q1) of 2024, marking the highest quarterly installation to date.

Quarter-over-quarter (QoQ) capacity additions also saw a dramatic surge of 414 per cent, rising from nearly 2 GW in Q4 2023. In Q1 2024, India installed 9.7 GW of large-scale solar capacity, which included 1.8 GW from open access solar projects. This represents a 524 per cent QoQ increase and a nearly 534 per cent YoY rise.

There is a substantial pipeline of large-scale projects scheduled for 2024, positioning India for a record-breaking year by a significant margin. Assuming stability in policy and supply chains, and if government agencies continue to auction projects and meet the set targets, India is poised to be among the top three solar markets globally.

Wind Projects in India

Wind power projects in India are expected to see an uptick in volumes during fiscal 2024.

As we embark on the journey into 2024, the winds of change are blowing through India's energy landscape, particularly in the realm of renewables. With a nation fervently striving towards net zero goals and a global call for sustainability, wind energy will play a pivotal role in the coming decade to get India to its 500 GW⁹ renewables by 2030 goal – as a part of this, India aims to build 140 gigawatts (GW) of wind capacity by 2030.

Currently, India's global ranking in wind power capacity is 4th with an installed base of over 45 GW, as of March 2023. Wind power accounts for approximately 10% of the country's total installed capacity and a significant 25% of its total renewable capacity.

India has over two decades of experience in harnessing power through grid-connected wind energy. Between 2010-2016 wind energy in India experienced a CAGR of 11.39% to 13%; however, a tremendous slowdown occurred in the next 5 years. Factors that contributed to this stagnancy include:

- Introduction of competitive bidding
- Changes in Wind Energy policies pan-India.
- Supply Chain disruptions owing to the global Covid-19 pandemic.

To revive growth in the wind market and promote RE, the Indian government announced new policies and market mechanisms in 2021. In July 2022, the Ministry of Renewable Energy (MNRE) also announced an RPO trajectory till 2030 to showcase roadmap for achieving target of 500 GW of renewable generation capacity. Apart from this, the eagerness of the C&I segments to adopt wind-solar hybrid systems and the increasing demand for wind energy are all indicators of a resurgence in the segment.

Recent research by the Global Wind Energy Council (GWEC) has identified growth drivers for this segment of Renewables in India. FY25 is expected to see a surge in installations on the back of the expiry of ISTS waivers in June 2025. With the 3 markets, Central, State and C&I procurement rising in tandem, the next 3 years will result in both onshore and offshore capacity addition. C&I volumes are expected to be driven by Wind Solar hybrid especially across states like Rajasthan, Gujarat, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh. The government is also gearing up to award around 10 GW of wind projects annually, from FY24 onwards.

Meanwhile, the recent announcement of viability gap funding for 1 GW of offshore wind energy by the finance minister in the 2024 interim budget signifies a strong government commitment to the sector.

Apart from this, key drivers for offshore growth include:

- The 37 GW off-shore Wind tenders to be awarded by MNRE in Gujarat and Tamil Nadu
- Bringing the export grid (including cables and Offshore Wind substations) under the scope of PGCIL
- WTG OEMs and the broader wind energy supply chain turning to India for manufacturing + export opportunities.
- Repowering older wind projects which will increase efficiencies and be economical.

Roof Top Solar Projects in India

The Finance Minister, Nirmala Sitharaman, announced the launch of the ‘Rooftop Solar Scheme’ or the ‘PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana’ in the 2024-25 budget. This scheme provides subsidies for installing rooftop solar panels for residential houses and using solar energy for electricity, which will help save money on electricity bills. This article covers everything about the Rooftop Solar Scheme or PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana.

The Central Government will provide substantive subsidies directly to people’s bank accounts and heavily concessional bank loans to ensure that there is no cost burden on the people. The government subsidy will cover up to 40% of the cost of installation of the solar panels.

This scheme will help poor and middle-class households save up to Rs. 15,000 to Rs. 18,000 crores¹⁰ annually by getting free solar electricity and selling surplus power to electricity distribution companies. Under this scheme, the government aims to install solar panels in one crore homes throughout the country. This scheme will help the government save around Rs. 75,000 crore per year for electricity costs.

The Rooftop Solar Yojana, or the PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana, aims to provide 300 units of free electricity every month to light up one crore households. The objective of this scheme is to reduce the electricity costs of the house by installing rooftop solar panels and using solar energy.

Benefits of Rooftop Solar Scheme/PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana

- Savings of up to Rs. 15,000 to Rs. 18,000 crores annually from free solar electricity and selling the surplus power to the distribution companies for charging electric vehicles.
- Charging of electric vehicles
- Entrepreneurship opportunities for many vendors for the supply and installation of solar panels
- Employment opportunities for the youth with technical skills in the installation, manufacturing and maintenance of solar panels
- Reduction of electricity costs for the government.
- Increased use of renewable energy.
- Reduction in carbon emissions.

Eligibility Criteria for Rooftop Solar Scheme

- Applicants should be residents of India.
- Applicants should belong to poor and middle-income households.
- Applicants should have their own residence with a roof suitable for installing solar panels.
- Applicants must have a valid electricity connection.
- Applicants should not have availed of any other subsidy for solar panels.

LED Market Status in India

The India LED Lighting Market size is forecast to increase by USD 6.92 billion, at a CAGR of 23.23% between 2023 and 2028¹¹. The growth rate of the market depends on several factors, such as the declining manufacturing cost of these lights, the phasing out of halogen, incandescent, fluorescent, and HID lamps, and the increasing demand for these lighting in hazardous areas. Our report examines historical data from 2018 - 2022, besides analyzing the current and forecasted market scenario.

Market Dynamics

Our researchers studied the market research and growth data for years, with 2023 as the base year and 2024 as the estimated year, and presented the key drivers, trends, and challenges for the market.

Driver - Declining manufacturing cost of LED lights

The production cost of LED lights has declined steadily since the last decade and will continue to decline as India is poised to become the largest market for these lighting systems as a result of the government's UJALA initiative to replace all inefficient bulbs with energy-saving lamps. In addition, this has to a significant decline in the manufacturing costs as well as the overall cost of these lights.

Trends - Government initiatives propelling demand for LED light

A growing number of government projects and upcoming smart city initiatives by the government are driving the demand for these lights in India. For example, the Maharashtra Industrial Development Corporation (MIDC), in collaboration with the Kalyani Group, an Indian multinational conglomerate, announced in March 2021 the development of a smart city in Khed, Maharashtra, by 2024, connecting to the Pune-Nashik railway corridor, as part of the Government of India's National Smart Cities Mission (NSCM), urban renewal and retrofitting program.

Challenge - Limited thermal tolerance of LEDs installed in industrial facilities

A considerable energy loss happens in incandescent lamps as most of the power consumed is dissipated in the form of heat. In addition, the lighting efficiency of these lights is also reduced when exposed to high temperatures, high moisture, and other hazardous environments common in commercial and industrial areas.

Market Segmentation by Product, Application, and Distribution Channel

Product Segment Analysis:

The luminaries segment is estimated to witness significant growth during the forecast period. The luminaires segment is utilized extensively across applications as they have a longer lifespan, enhance energy efficiency, lower maintenance costs, and provide better quality light. In addition, LED luminaires are being increasingly integrated into exit lights, floodlights, as well as high-bay and low-bay lights, which were traditionally integrated with incandescent, fluorescent, and HID luminaires.

Increasing developments in the industrial category and increase in the number of residential houses to drive the growth of the LED lighting¹² market.

- In terms of value share, the industrial and warehouse segment was expected to have the largest share (58%) in 2023, followed by residential (24.4%), commercial (15.2%), and agricultural lighting (2%). India is on track to become a major manufacturing hub in the world with its aim to export USD 1 trillion worth of goods by 2030. Furthermore, the implementation of various programs and policies, such as the National Manufacturing Policy, which aims to increase the manufacturing share of GDP to 25% by 2025, may also facilitate the market. The effort is aimed at accelerating the development of the core manufacturing industry. Demand for industrial lighting has grown steadily in warehousing, logistics, and industrial operations. For example, the Warehousing, Industry, and Logistics (WIL) category is expected to be crucial to realizing India's vision of becoming a USD 5 trillion economy by FY 2025. These factors are increasing sales of LED lighting in domestic warehouses and industries.

In terms of volume share, residential lighting is expected to have the largest share (68%) in 2023, followed by commercial (28.4%), industrial and warehouse lighting (2%), and agricultural lighting (2%). The average household size, including all registrants nationwide, in 2022 was 4.4 people per household, leading to an increase in private households and homeowners. Over 50% of people in India live in their own homes, nearly 30% live in rented houses, and 13% live in their parents' homes. In addition, the Indian real estate industry has recently experienced significant growth due to increased demand for office and residential spaces. Home sales in seven Indian cities increased by 29% in Q4 FY 2021, with new listings up by 51% compared to Q4 FY 2020.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the IND AS Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report:

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company’s Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) with respect to the preparation and presentation of these Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance(including the other comprehensive income), cash flows and Statement of Changes in Equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Relevant Rules issued thereunder. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Financial Statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit Procedures that is appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists; we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the IND AS Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. Annexure B to the Independent Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of M/s. Epic Energy Limited ('the Company') as of 31st March, 2024 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS Financial Statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles including Indian Accounting Standards. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of the Management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2024, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Power saving Solutions includes Power Saver, APFC Panels, Remote Energy Management Software and Automatic Light Controllers etc. Renewable Energy Solution includes Solar Products, UPS, Inverters, etc. The Financial Statements were approved and adopted by Board of Directors of the Company in their meeting held on 18th May 2024.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

2.1. Statement of Compliance

These Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as “Ind AS”) as prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, as amended from time to time. The Board of Directors approved the Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March, 2024 and authorised for issue on 18th May, 2024

2.2. Basis of Preparation and Presentation

The Financial Statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and in accordance with the historical cost convention, unless otherwise stated. Historical cost is the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the consideration given to acquire assets at the time of their acquisition or the amount of proceeds received in exchange for the obligation, or at the amounts of cash or cash equivalents expected to be paid to satisfy the liability in the normal course of business. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

These Financial Statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR), which is also the Company’s functional currency. All amounts are rounded to nearest Lakh, unless otherwise indicated.

2.3. Critical accounting estimates and judgments

In the application of the Company’s accounting policies, the management of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgments is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation for each affected line item in the Financial Statements.

The areas involving critical estimates or judgments are:

- Estimation of useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment
- Estimation of employee benefit obligations Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated.
- Estimations used for determination of tax expenses and tax balances (including Minimum Alternate Tax credit)

- Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances

2.4. Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost is inclusive of freight, duties, levies and any directly attributable cost of bringing the assets to their present working condition. When significant parts of property, plant and equipments are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company derecognises the replaced part, and recognises the new part with its own associated useful life and it is depreciated accordingly. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria is satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss as incurred. The present value of the expected cost for the decommissioning of the asset after its use is included in the cost of the respective asset if the recognition criteria for a provision are met. Capital work-in-progress includes cost of property, plant and equipments under installation / development as at the balance sheet date. Property, plant and equipments are eliminated from financial statement, either on disposal or when retired from financial statement, either on disposal or retired from active use. Losses arising in the case of retirement of property, plant and equipments and gains or losses arising from disposal of property, plant and equipments are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year of occurrence. The assets' residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each financial year and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on the basis and manner provided in Schedule II to the Companies Act 2013. In respect of Energy Saving Equipments offered on BOOT basis, depreciation is written off over BOOT period. Property, plant and equipments which are added/disposed off during the year, depreciation is provided on pro-rata basis with reference to the month of addition/ deletion.

Derecognition

An item of Property, Plant and Equipments is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of Property, Plant and Equipments is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.5. Impairment

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An assets recoverable amount is the higher of an assets or cash –generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining net selling price, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. An assessment is made at each reporting date whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased.

2.6. Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories are determined on moving weighted average basis. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Cost of inventory includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Unserviceable/damaged stores and spares are identified and written down based on technical evaluation.

2.7. Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions with charge to Statement of Profit and Loss. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Company has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

Restructuring provisions are recognised only when the Company has a constructive obligation, which is when: (i) a detailed formal plan identifies the business or part of the business concerned, the location and number of employees affected, a detailed estimate of the associated costs, and the timeline; and (ii) the employees affected have been notified of the plan's main features.

2.8. Contingent Liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the Financial Statements.

2.9. Contingent assets

Contingent assets are not recognised but disclosed in the Financial Statements when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

2.10. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash and cash equivalents includes balance with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

2.11. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is the gross inflow of cash, receivables or other consideration arising in the course of the ordinary activities of an enterprise from the sale of goods, from the rendering of services, and from the use by others of enterprise resources yielding interest, royalties and dividends. Revenues from sale of goods.

i. Sale of Goods

Revenue from the sale of goods in the course of ordinary activities is measured at the value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns, trade discounts, rate differences and volume rebates. Revenue is recognized on the basis of audited report on energy saved on replaced Street lights, recovery of the consideration is probable, the associated costs and possible return of goods can be estimated reliably, there is no continuing effective control over the goods and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably. The timing of transfer of control normally happens upon shipment. However, in case of consignment sales to agents' revenues are recognized when the materials are sold to ultimate customers.

Further, revenues are recognized at gross value of consideration of goods & processing of goods excluding Goods and Service Tax (GST).

Revenue from sale of products is not recognized on the grounds of prudence, until realized in respect of delayed payments as recovery of amounts are not certain.

ii. Sale of Services

Revenue from the service contract is recognized when the related services are performed and revenue from the services at the end of the reporting period is recognized based on stage of completion method. When there is uncertainty as to the ultimate collection of the revenue, recognition is postponed until such uncertainty is resolved. Revenues from service contracts are measured based on the services performed to date as a percentage of total services to be performed. In case where the services are performed by an indeterminate number of acts over a specified period of time, revenue is recognized on a straight line basis over the specified period. After the initial recognition, in respect of uncollectible amount, provisions are made in the period in which amount is identified as uncollectible.

iii. Interest and Dividend Income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

2.12. Other Employee Benefits

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of receiving employee services are classified as Short-term employee benefits. These benefits include salaries and wages, performance incentives and Compensated absences which are expected to occur in next twelve months.

2.13. Income Tax

a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except when it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax, in so far as it relates to items disclosed under other comprehensive income or equity, are disclosed separately under other comprehensive income or equity, as applicable.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

2.14. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues including for changes effected prior to the approval of the Standalone Financial Statements by the Board of Directors.

3. Other Significant Accounting Policies

3.1. Foreign currency

The functional currency of the Company is Indian Rupee (₹).

In the Financial Statements of the Company, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies are translated into the functional currency at exchange rates prevailing on the reporting date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies and measured at historical cost or fair value are translated at the exchange rates prevailing on the dates on which such values were determined. All exchange differences are included in the statement of profit and loss except any exchange differences on monetary items designated as an effective hedging instrument of the currency risk of designated forecasted sales or purchases, which are recognized in the other comprehensive income.

3.2. Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification.

An asset is treated as current when it is:

- expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
- held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- it is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle,
- it is held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- it is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- there is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. The Company has identified twelve months as its operating cycle.

3.3. Onerous contracts

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Company has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

3.4. Financial Instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

3.5. Financial Asset

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value, plus in case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset is considered. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

a) Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

On initial recognition, the Company makes an irrevocable election on an instrument-by-instrument basis to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income pertaining to investments in equity instruments, other than equity investment which are held for trading. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the 'Equity Instruments through Other Comprehensive Income'. The cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the investments.

c) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Investments in equity instruments are classified as at FVTPL, unless the Company irrevocably elects on initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income for investments in equity instruments which are not held for trading. Other financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income.

d) Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet) when:

- the right to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- the Company has transferred its right to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Company has transferred its right to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Company continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement. In that case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

e) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Company recognises lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and / or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12 month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

3.6. Financial liabilities and equity instruments

a) Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by a Company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

b) Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

c) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method or FVTPL. Gains and losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) amortisation process. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as FVTPL. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if these are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on re-measurement recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

d) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

3.7. Reclassification of financial assets and liabilities

The Company determines classification of financial assets and liabilities on initial recognition. After initial recognition, no reclassification is made for financial assets which are equity instruments and financial liabilities. For financial assets which are debt instruments, a reclassification is made only if there is a change in the business model for managing those assets. Changes to the business model are expected to be infrequent. The Company's senior management determines change in the business model as a result of external or internal changes which are significant to the Company's operations. Such changes are evident to external parties. A change in the business model occurs when the Company either begins or ceases to perform an activity that is significant to its operations. If the Company reclassifies financial assets, it applies the reclassification prospectively from the reclassification date which is the first day of the immediately next reporting period following the change in business model. The Company does not restate any previously recognised gains, losses (including impairment gains or losses) or interest.

3.8. Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, where by profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

3.9. Operating Cycle

Considering the nature of business activities, the operating cycle has been assumed to have a duration of 12 months. Accordingly, all assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's operating cycle and other criteria set out in Ind AS 1 'Presentation of Financial Statements' and Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.

3.10. Maintenance of Books of Accounts under Section 128 of the Companies Act, 2013

The Company has defined process to take daily back-up of books of account maintained electronically and complied with the provisions of The Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (as amended). However, the Company as a policy, has maintained logs of the daily back-up of such books of account only for 90 days and hence audit trail in relation to daily back up taken was not available for full year.

3.11. Significant Events after the Reporting Period

There were no significant adjusting events that occurred subsequent to the reporting period other than the events disclosed in the relevant notes.
